

Worksite Wellness

Gain Insight into Cost Drivers

Increase Productivity and Wellness

Panelists

Dan Larsen

Safety Director,
Phase2 Construction
970.988.1165
dan2@phase2co.com

Employer: Application of safety and wellness in the workplace

Karen Curran

Director of Worksite Wellness,
Pinnacol Assurance
303.361.4784
karen.curran@pinnacol.com

Director: Development and management of worksite wellness program sales and engagement

Natalie Schwatka

PhD, Colorado School of Public Health
303.724.4607
Natalie.Schwatka@ucdenver.edu

Researcher: Analysis of data and trends in safety, health and productivity

Claire Brockbank

Managing Partner, Segue Consulting 303.316.2655
brockbank@segueconsulting.com

Administrator and strategist: Design, research and problem solve to bring business and research together

Goals

1

Communicate the value and challenges of delivering wellness and productivity management through a safety and risk management model

2

Provide metrics and results from the employers' and research perspectives

3

Highlight lessons learned on advancing wellness and productivity

Thank You!

Segue Consulting

- Claire Brockbank

IBI

- Kim Jinnett

Colorado School of Public Health

- Lee Newman
- Kaylan Stinson
- David Weitzenkamp
- Adam Atherly
- Roxana Witter
- Miranda Dally
- Hai Fang
- Steven Reynolds

Truven Health Analytics

- Ron Goetzel

Pinnacol Assurance

- James McMillen
- Rebecca Thomas
- Karen Curran
- Danielle Nieto

Trotter Wellness

- Patrick Trotter

The Colorado business owners that trusted us.